ABOLITION OF SLAVEHT.

Mr. Morris, of Ohio, during the morning, presented petitions from different parts of the State, praying for the abolition of slavery in the District of Columbia In presenting his petitions, Mr. Morris took accession to say that the petitioners were neither tanatics nor incendiaper, but hencel and intelligent men, who be lieved that Congress had a right to act upon the subject set forth in the petition. The excitement upon the abolition question, he said, was epreading from one extremity to another over the length and breadth of his State and was daily upon the increase.

Mr. Strange, of North Carolina made some remarks in apposition to the petitioners. The Senator from Ohio might be honest and sincere in the expression of the apinion that the petition. ers were not fanalies and incendiaries, but the fact that they petitioned for the abelition of slavery in this Detriet was prost enough that they were both fanatic, and incendiaries. Our encestors were certainly unfortunate and it is impossible not to pity their ignorance. They lived to ninety, and never suspected they were poisoning themselves all their life-time. Never shall I forget the nervous horror of my old grandinother when she came home from one of the lectures of Dr. Sawdust, who had been proving that coffee was poison. The old lady, had drank four cups a day ever since she was found upon our table this morning. The whole ten years old, she immediately clapped on her spectacles, sat down with a piece of chalk and made a calculation of the quantity. She could hardly believe her own eyes when she discovered that she had swallowed seven thousand three hundred and eighty eight gallons of powon! "Better late than never," she exclaimed, ." won't be pulsamed any longer, not I!". And so, at the age of ninety, she reformed her diet, fully persuaded that to go on drighing sofles would kill her moner or later. Another old lady, on hearing that ten was intoxicating, had nearly gone into fits, and is in great affliction at the thought that she bad been juddled every day for sixty years, without knowing any thing about it. With the great abundance of wisdom upon tred matters that we are then by ... I ... it hopen. pects are surely very encouraging. If we be lieve the regerable dist ... invaous, who, of course, know all about it, human life is to be wonderfully increased in duration: they talk of Methovaleh and his great sweles as familiarly as maidens of lifteen do of pappydags. The danger seems to be that people will hive too long. Trus if is that none of this cabbage led tribe have yet given any strong signs of longevity; they all die off most unaccountably just as they are onthe point of beginning to live a thousand years. However, this must be a mere fresh of nature, who often takes a malingers pleasure in confounding the wingst of our galoulations.

All the operations have been conducted with efficiency and secrecy, and as there are many disaffected on the proposed route, there is some leasionity in the plan. We think they will at enst take Malden, it they try

Deservedly the most popular remedy ever known in America! VEGETABLE PULMONARY BAL. SAM. The following recommendation is from Dr. Jacob Myers:

Extract of a letter from Dr. Jacob Myers.

"The Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam has been sold in this country for two years, and the medicine has gained an uncommon eclebrity, for it scarcely in one instance failed of having the desired effect. I am by no means in favor of the many no-trums most of which are impositions upon a credulous public, but that which I know by experience to be effectual, I cannot help but give my apprehation thereto. A counterfest preparation has been offered here by a travelling agent of Comstock, N. Y., and there is also smother article vended here that is strongly suspected to be spurious. JACOR MYERS, M. D. Miffinton, Juniata co., Penn. May 3, 1837."

""Many new and highly interesting certificates may be examined on the bill of directions.

It There are many counterefeit preparations assuming wholly or in part the name of the original and true V. P. Balsair.
